Your signature and submission of this registration form authorizes CourtTrax Corporation to charge your credit card on the first business day of the month for QuickCheck criminal court records search fees accumulated during the prior month, if any, and to process these charges on a recurring basis. Our charge to your credit card is our receipt for our services. Your authorization to us to process these credit card charges remains valid until your authorization is canceled in writing. Additional credit card processing information is available on the QuickCheck search page at the Payment Information Link.

Direct Billing Information

Alternatively you can choose to receive a manual bill once a month - there is a $6.00 Service Charge per month for this option.

The Service Charge does not apply if you do not have search charges during the month.

Please bill this account directly on a monthly basis.

Privacy Statement: CourtTrax only uses customer information in direct context to providing and managing our services. We do provide the Farm Bureau with its members' usage information.
